THURSDAY, JANUARY 28TH

Downsizing and Home Organization

Cheryl Smith, Owner

Consider it Done Transition Services

It's January— national organizing month! No better time to start organizing and downsizing your space. Getting started is sometimes the hardest part of the process. Today you will be able to walk away from your computer with a handful of tips and tricks to get your space in order. We will talk about getting yourself ready to start this process. Then we will equip you with some simple strategies that you can use in all areas of your home from the kitchen, to the garage to your master closet. You will be amazed at the progress you'll be able to make AND even more exciting will be the lightness you will feel as you let go of those items around you.

My life's work is much like a quilt. A beautiful combination of experiences that have been sewn together to create a service to help YOU. I have combined my 20 years as an educator (and principal) along with my work as a professional development facilitator for a national organization, a sales executive in the digital marketing and medical industries and topped it off by serving families at a funeral home as a family counselor. Throw in my work as a busy wife and fun-loving mother and that is one big beautiful quilt.
